

Is your child ready for Kindergarten?

Purdue Extension Hancock County presents:

July 15-19, 2019

9am-11:30am or 1pm-3:30pm

at J.B. Stephens, 1331 N Blue Road, Greenfield

Note: The session on Friday, July 19 will be 9:00am-2:00pm for all participants.*

Kindergarten 101 is a FREE week long experience where your child will learn basic skills such as how to ride on a school bus, eat in the cafeteria, complete school work, and additional activities that will help them succeed in Kindergarten. In addition, they will receive games and their own personal books to continue the learning at home!

Parents will also get the opportunity to learn how to best help their child in Kindergarten through two parent classes.

- Kindergarten 101 is for students who will enter Kindergarten in summer/fall 2019.
- Preference is given to those children who have not participated in preschool or a structured daycare.
