Greenfield-Central Parents:

Due to circumstances that were unforeseen when the 2019-2020 school calendar was adopted, Greenfield-Central Schools will be closed on Tuesday, November 19th. As of today, 90 Greenfield-Central teachers have informed us that they will be absent on this particular day. We simply do not have the ability to fill a majority of these vacancies.

Therefore, in order that we may provide a safe and meaningful day of learning for our students, Tuesday, November 19th will be an eLearning day. Following our typical practice, our teachers will prepare appropriate lessons for students that will allow them to continue their learning. We encourage parents to begin making childcare arrangements for this update to the school's calendar on November 19th.

Greenfield-Central Schools will return to the advertised calendar after this one-day alteration. Please note that Greenfield-Central still intends to use February 5th, 2020 as a planned eLearning day.

If you have any questions about this change, please feel free to reach out to your child's principal or me.

Yours in education.

Dr. Harold E. Olin
