

WE'RE HAVING A SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR!

APRIL 12-16

Because health and safety is the top priority, the J.B. Stephens Library will be hosting a CONTACTLESS Book Fair this Spring. This touch-free option eliminates crowding around display cases, and merchandise is not handled by students. Additionally, if you choose to make payment through the student eWallet, our preferred payment method, there is no cash handling required.

How does a Contactless Book Fair work?

- Students and families shop from the attached Scholastic flyer. You may also refer to pictures of the display cases posted to the JBS Contactless Book Fair site (link below or scan the QR code) for additional items not listed on the flyer.

- Students bring the bottom of this completed order form with payment (only send payment if not using eWallet) to school any day between April 12 and 16. Please note, sales tax will not be collected.
- Orders will be fulfilled during the school day, with students returning home with their new books that same day!
- The JBS Library will earn 50% on all sales made at our Contactless Book Fair, which means new books for our students!!
